

EE 494 Provisional Topics

Credits: 3 credits

Categorization of credits: engineering topic

Instructor(s): All EE faculty.

Textbook and Other Required Materials:

Vary with course contents and instructors.

Designation: Elective.

Catalog Description: EE 494 Provisional Topics (3) Upper division course with subject matter to be announced.

Pre- and Co-requisites: Course pre-requisites vary with course contents. Senior standing.

Class/Lab Schedule: 3 hours of lecture per week. Typically, the schedule will be three 1-hour lectures per week.

Topics Covered:

Vary with course contents and instructors.

Course Objectives and Relationship to Program Objectives:

The course objectives will vary with course contents and instructors. This course is for senior level topics that are not covered in regularly scheduled courses. The purpose of this course is the same as EE 491, except that it will cover topics outside of what an EE 491 could cover.

Course Outcomes and Their Relationship to Program Outcomes

Vary with course contents and instructors.

Contribution of Course to Meeting the Professional Component

Vary with course contents and instructors.

Computer Usage:

Vary with course contents and instructors.

Design Credits and Features:

Vary with course contents and instructors.

Person(s) Preparing Syllabus and Date: Created by Galen Sasaki for the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee, February 17, 2003. Revised by Yingfei Dong for UCC, Jan. 8, 2021.